Where can you volunteer?

Orphanages & Childcare Homes

Focus: Direct engagement and care.

- Reading to children
- Helping with homework
- Organizing games/sports
- Planting organic vegetable gardens
- Creating art/plays

Community & Youth Centres

Focus: Support and service.

- Listening and talking to seniors/patients
- Cooking and feeding
- Running errands
- Finding social work referrals

NGOs & Government Organizations

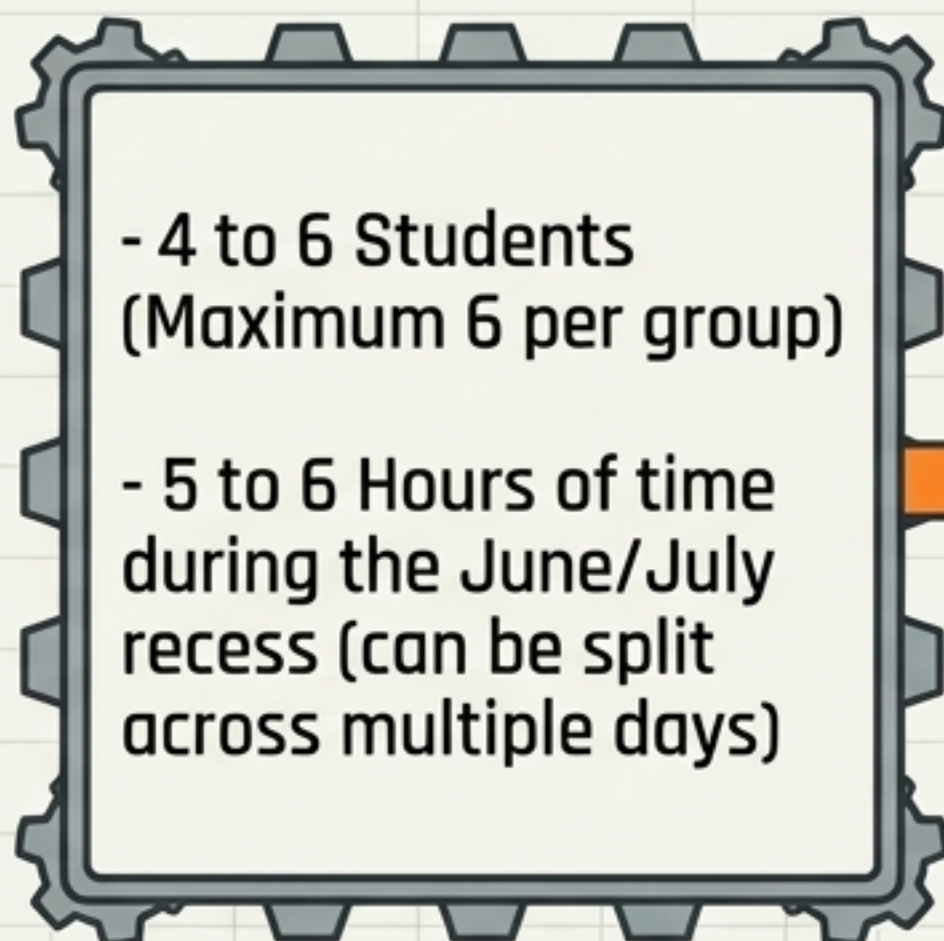

Focus: Administrative and operational support.

- Assisting with fundraising
- Filing and answering telephones
- Making and distributing posters

Crucial Step: Do an initial visit before volunteering to identify exactly four needs your group can assist with.

Points Breakdown

Part A is the heavy lifter of your grade.

Half of your total project marks are earned here, heavily weighted toward how well you describe the actual work you performed.

Cracking the 20-Mark Core: The '5-Sentence' Rules

Group Roles

Write a minimum of 5 sentences total about the role of the group members. (Merely listing names does not count).

Group Activities

Report on all the activities of the group members in a minimum of 5 sentences.

Individual Actions

Describe all actions of all members in a minimum of 5 sentences.

Time Management

Describe how the 5-6 hours were used by everyone in a minimum of 5 sentences.

Accuracy over volume: Writing more than the minimum allocated sentences will not earn you extra marks.

Part B: The 16-Mark Class Presentation

Parameter Box: Create a short PPT (max 4-5 slides) or a poster. Present as a group to the class.

Pillar 1: Content & Creativity (4 marks)

Informative, creative layout, tells a coherent story.

Pillar 2: Clarity & Beneficiaries (4 marks)

Clearly state what was done, who benefited, and when. Provide clear answers to Q&A.

Pillar 3: Visual Evidence (4 marks)

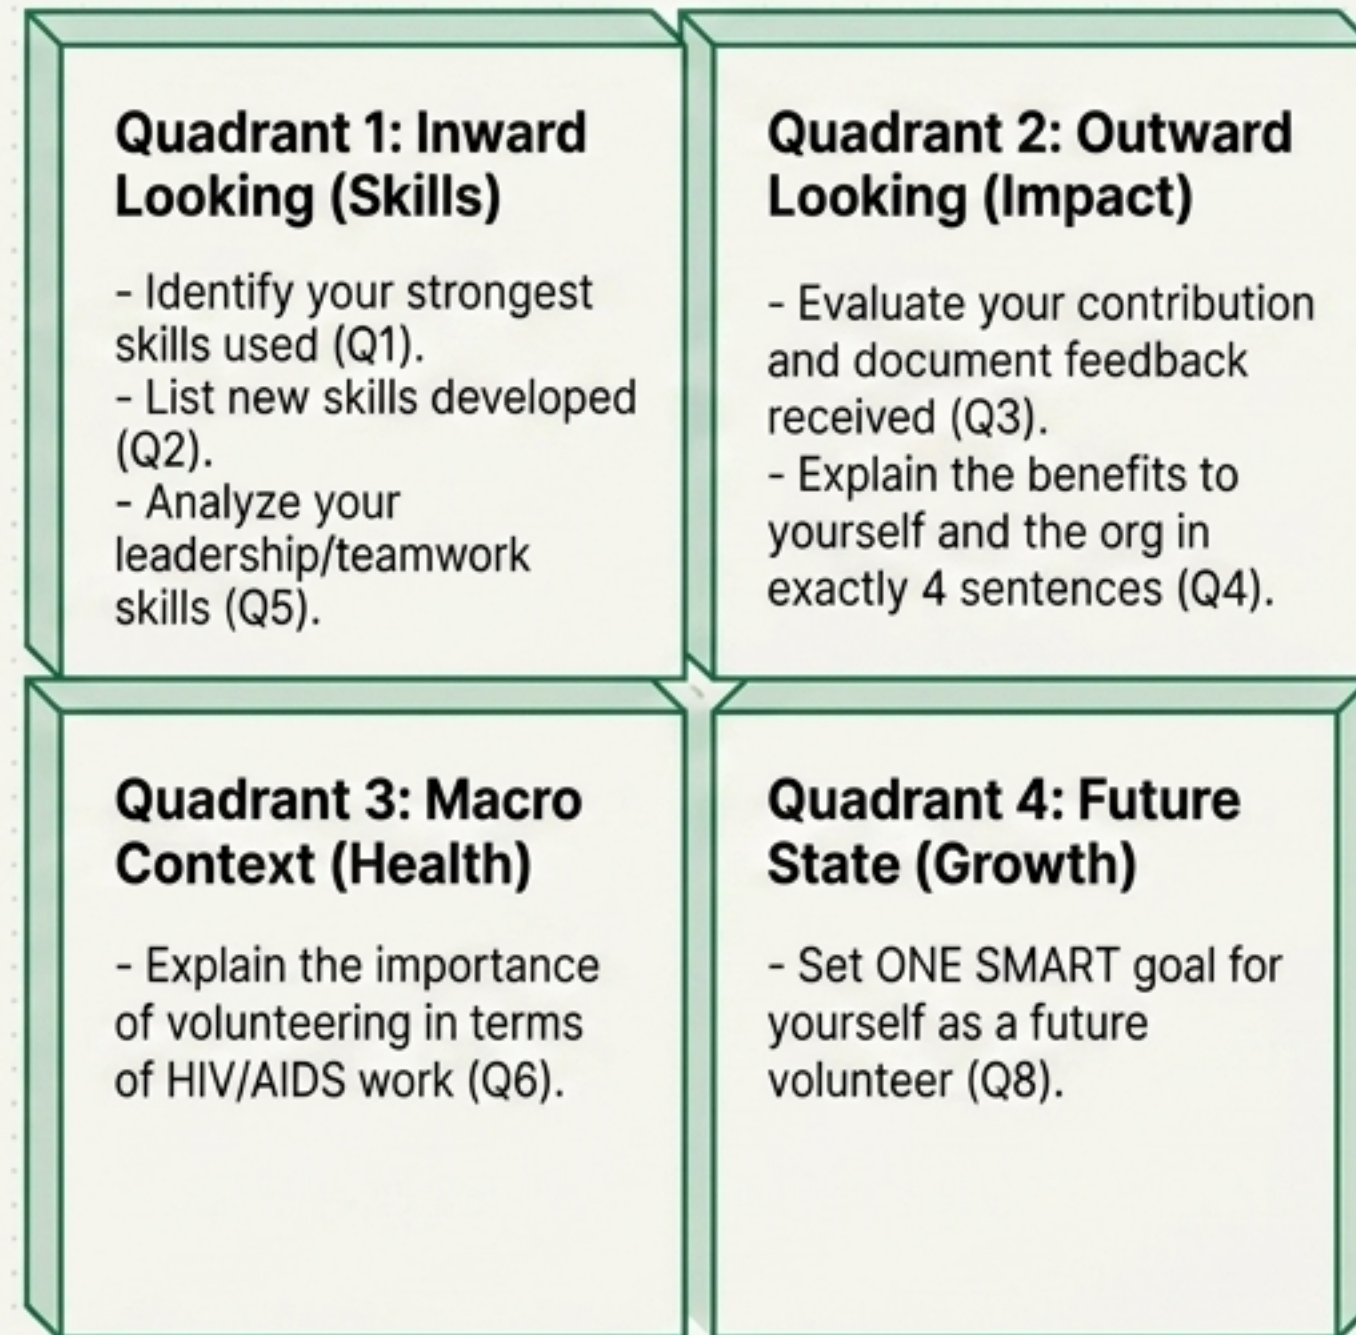

Must include at least 3 photos (or 1 video) that are informative and relevant.

Pillar 4: Delivery Skills (4 marks)

Prepared (cues, files ready), articulate, unrushed, maintain eye contact, and finish on time.

Part C: The 19-Mark Individual Reflection

Note: This part must be typed individually based on your specific role.

Critical Requirement Spotlight: The HIV/AIDS Policy

Action 1

(During Fieldwork)

Obtain a physical copy or take a clear picture of the first page of their policy document.

Context: At your selected organization, you must ask about their specific HIV/AIDS policy.

Action 2

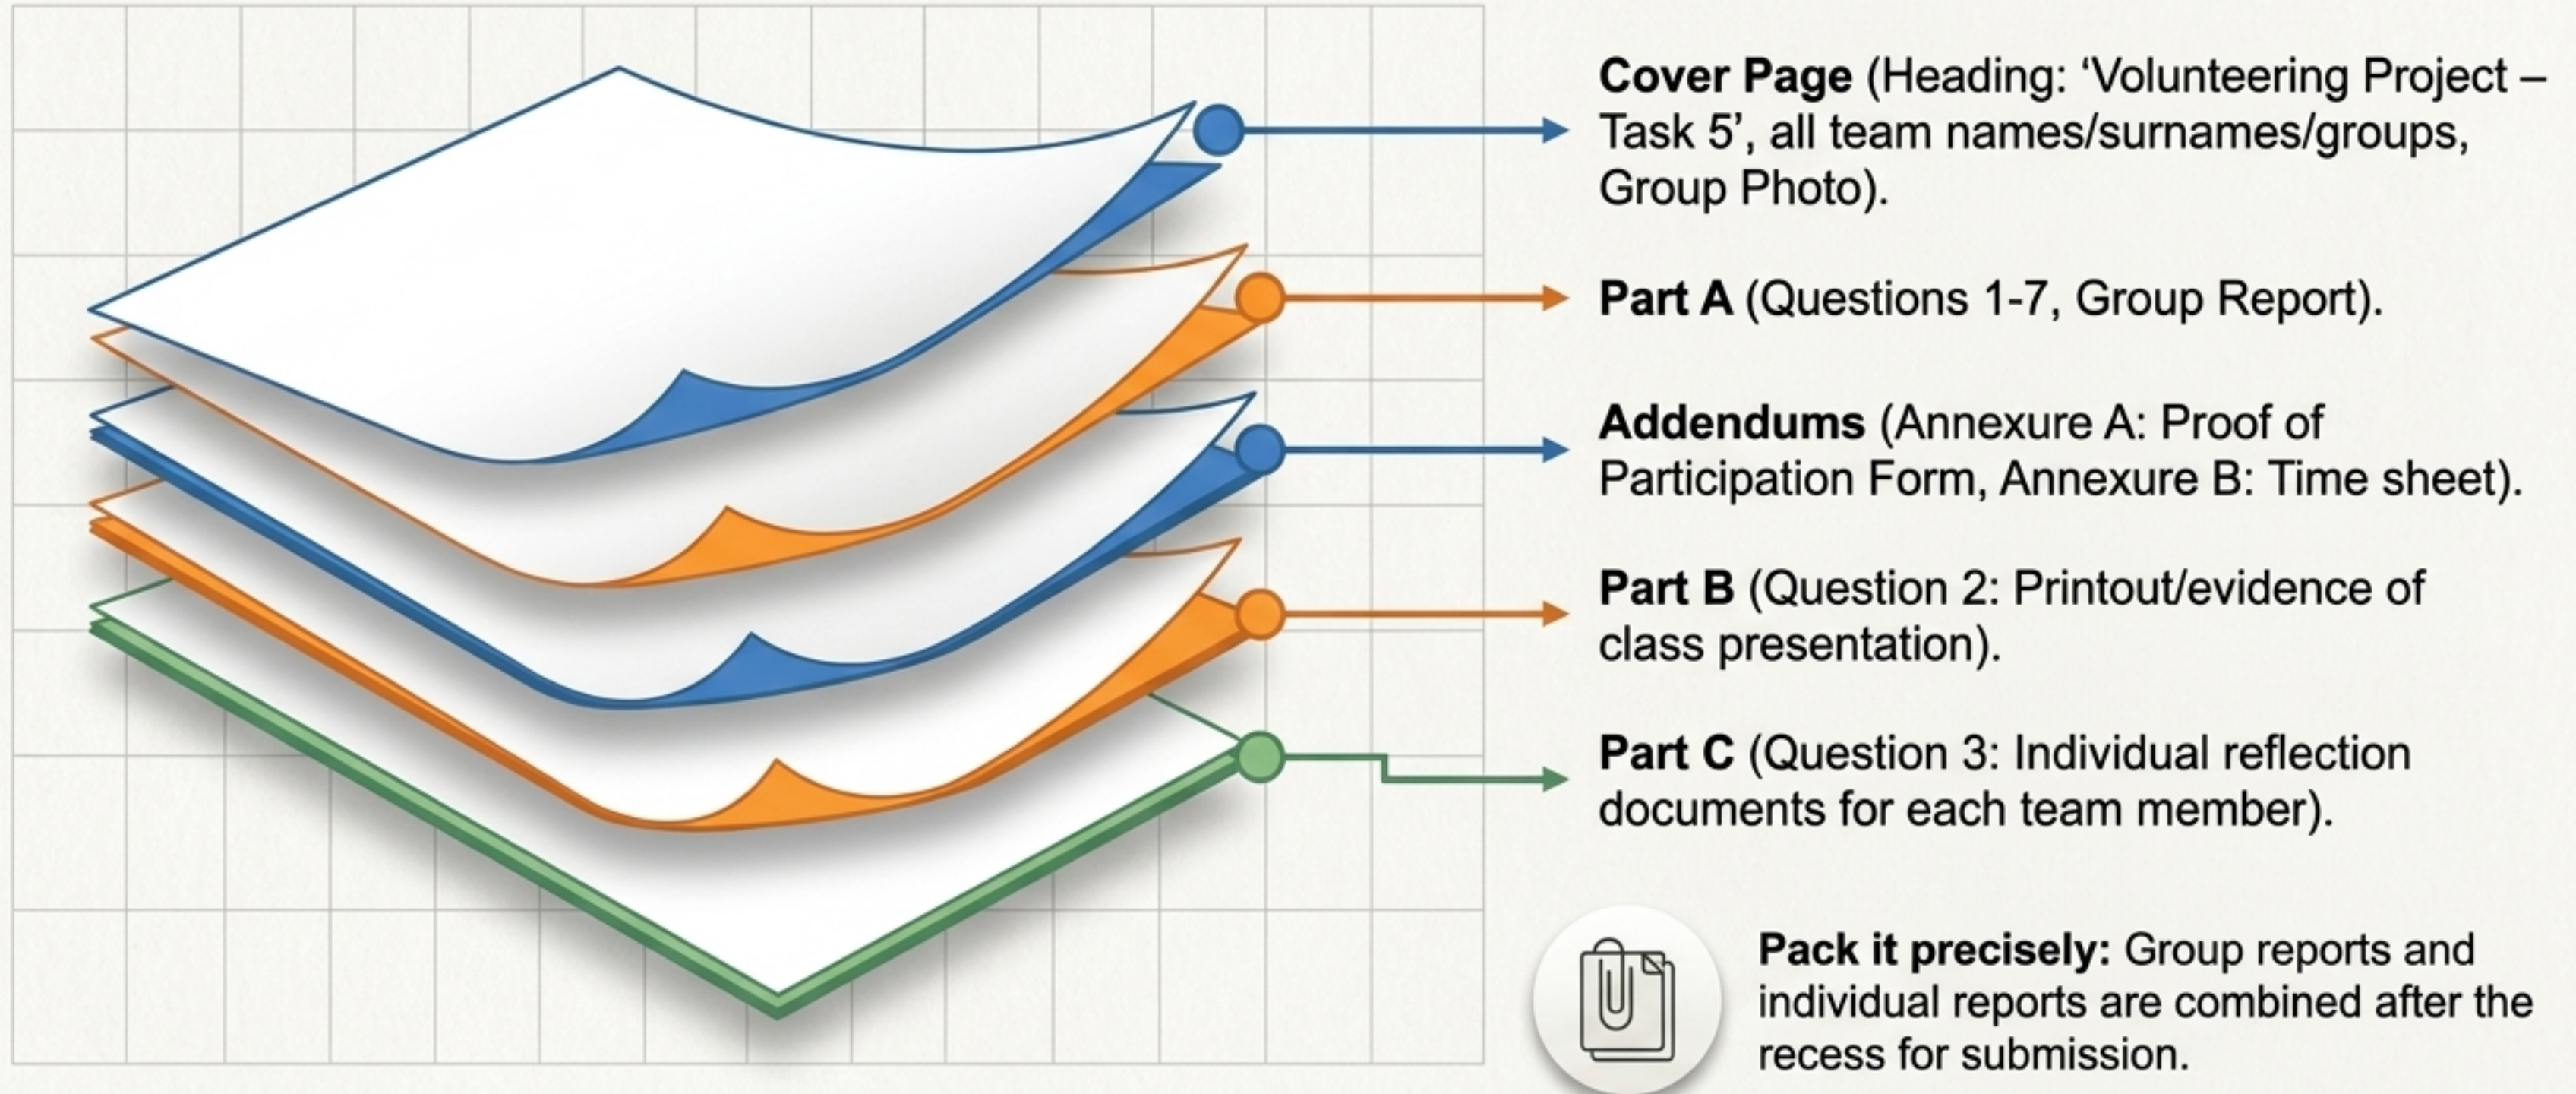

(During Part C Reflection)

- You must actively include the first page or screenshot in your final submission.
- Answer Question 7 (2 Marks): Did they have a policy? Why is it important for an organization to have one?

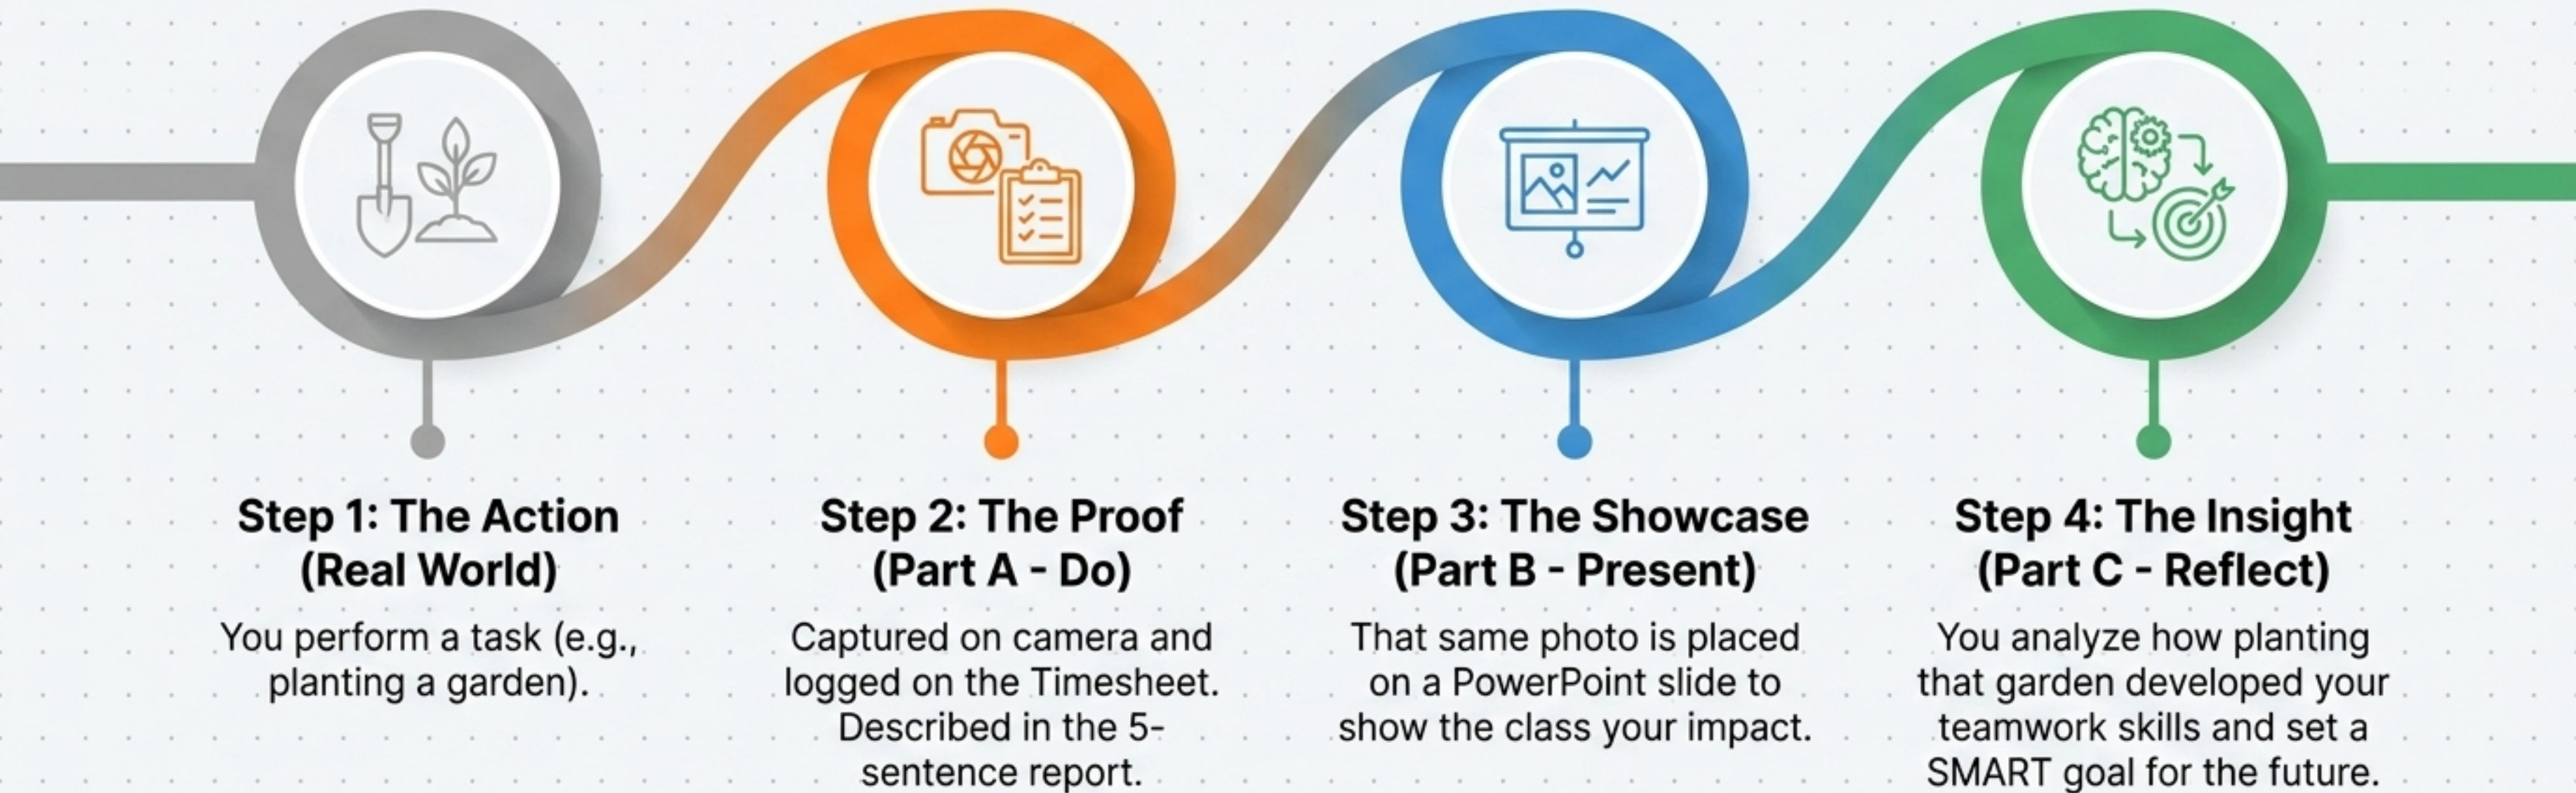

The Project Layout Stack

Formatting Rule: Entire assignment typed in Arial 12pt in Microsoft Word.

The Golden Thread of Evidence

Every mark you earn in your presentation and reflection is directly powered by the quality of the fieldwork and evidence you gather on day one.
